

*2019 African American History Month
Nominations for the 23rd Annual Unity Luncheon*

Dear Community Members:

In 1996, the African American History Month Committee at Middle Tennessee State University began the tradition of honoring our elderly unsung heroes. We are reaching out to community members to nominate individuals who meet the following criteria: age 60 or older who have resided in the Middle Tennessee area for 25 years or more and who have made outstanding contributions to their community. These individuals will be recognized at our 23rd Annual Unity Luncheon that which will be held on February 14, 2019 at MTSU.

Categories:

Education

This award recognizes an outstanding educator who has shown remarkable dedication and excellence to students and fellow educators. He/she are active in the community.

Community Service

This award recognizes a person who has demonstrated an unparalleled commitment to public service. He/she has dedicated time and energy to community service endeavors that have made positive contributions to individuals and/or organizations.

Advocate of Civility

This award recognizes a person who have taken meaningful steps to promote a more civil public discourse and who epitomize the highest professional standards of civility.

Excellence in Sports

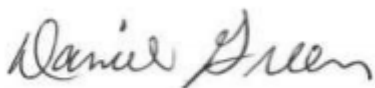

This award recognizes a person or team regardless of gender of sport that made a significant, groundbreaking contribution in the realm of activities that transcendent during that era.

Contribution to Black Arts

This award recognizes a person who has excelled in the area(s) of music, dance, theatre and/or visual arts. This award is ideal for someone who has pronounced dedication to the arts and has freely shared their talent to enhance the Black Community or represent the community in a positive way.

Please complete the nomination form and send it back via email, fax, or mail. Online submissions are also accepted at <http://www.mtsu.edu/aahm/unity-awards.php>.

Sincerely,

Daniel Green
Intercultural & Diversity Affairs
Daniel.green@mtsu.edu

The Deadline to Submit Nominations is January 4, 2019

Relationship to Nominee: _____

□ Contribution to Black Arts

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.